At the University of Oklahoma - Norman

The Faculty of Law of the University of Bologna, located in Ravenna, is very pleased to introduce its student, Mr. Gabriele Piermartini, who is involved in the Overseas Program for the University of Oklahoma.

Mr. Piermartini has followed almost all the lessons of the past three years, always giving a personal contribution with pertinent interventions, always very measured and balanced, in which he has shown his true interest for the subject, his own personal knowledge, the ability to connect what explained during the lesson and studied on the books with the events of the external world.

He has contributed to create an extremely favorable academic environment of which all the students have taken advantage, besides, he has elaborated a collection of clipboard really well done and deep, excellently integrated and inspired from the lessons, the indications of the books and the information drawn by the analysis of the jurisprudence and other sources autonomously focused. To this activity, he has united a remarkable care in the capillary organization of the contacts between the teachers and the other students predisposing, besides, a site of news (www.appuntiunira.net), forum and clipboard that it has found an enormous success (more than 300.000 access in two years) among the students apart from the appreciation of the teachers.

He has been the best student of his academic course in 2006/2007.

Thanks to his good juridical knowledge, to his ability of application, to his intense interest for the subjects, we are convinced that Mr. Piermartini will have a great profit from the period of study in the United States; for these reasons, we recommend his candidacy for the University of Oklahoma.

Prof. Sandro Mainardi
